THAILAND

The Oriental Bangkok

They have completely redone the hotel but in the Thai style. Everything is ultra modern in this dot-com era with numerous telephone lines and tech equipment but the charm, the elegance, and especially the Asian service is still the best.

The Siam Suite is one of the most beautiful and unusual and gives you a good idea of what a lot of money, top quality décor, and imagination can do.

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

Hilton Trinidad &amp; Conference Centre and Hilton Tobago

While the economic climate in most of Latin America and the Caribbean has been anything but robust for the past several years, that has not been the case in Trinidad and Tobago. Thanks to large reserves of natural gas and petroleum, Trinidad and Tobago have become the most diversified and fastest-growing industrialized economy in the English-speaking Caribbean.

These days, scores of foreign investors are making the rounds in Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago's capital city, and their hotel of choice, by far the country's best hotel, is the Hilton Trinidad & Conference Centre.

Affectionately called the "Upside Down" hotel (the floors with the lowest numbers are at the top levels, and vice versa) by the local citizenry, the Hilton Trinidad & Conference Centre has 380 balconied rooms, including 27 suites and 54 executive rooms; an executive clubroom; business center; conference and banquet facilities; swimming pool; tennis courts; fitness center; and the elegant La Boucan Restaurant. The hotel is only a few minutes' drive from downtown Port of Spain, and 45 minutes from Plarco International Airport. If you're planning to do business in Port of Spain, this is the place to stay.

For executives who are looking for a little R&R during their visit to Trinidad and Tobago, the Hilton Tobago, located on a 750-acre estate with a 5,000-foot beach, is an ideal setting to experience some of the world's best scuba diving, golf, and windsurfing. Each of the Hilton Tobago's 200 rooms and suites offer beautiful ocean views, and executives like the fact that the hotel's 4,675-square-foot ballroom makes it a perfect venue for small meetings and conventions.

Hilton's new company logo sports the theme, "Hilton: The Place You'd Rather Be." In Trinidad & Tobago, they've got that right.
