The London NYC

PART OF THE LXR LUXURY RESORTS PORTFOLIO of independent properties, the 562-room The London NYC (www.thelondonnyc.com), opened in 2006 and located on West 54th Street between Sixth and Seventh avenues, has debuted 10 new luxury suites. Designed by David Collins, the suites are situated atop the hotel's 54-story building.

These exquisite new suites are divided into four room types – the London Apartments, the London Atrium, the London Sky Suites, and the London Penthouse – that offer guests spacious accommodations and a guest-in-residence experience, with open floor plans, luxurious furnishings, and smart finishes. Replete with the comforts of home, they are well suited for both private relaxation and stylish entertaining and feature expansive drawing rooms and master bedrooms with ample areas for lounging above midtown Manhattan.

The London Atrium features an expansive glass-domed atrium ceiling and windows that offer a panoramic view of Central Park and the Hudson River. Measuring 1,500 square feet and located on the 43rd floor, the suite features a living area and sitting room, dining area, wet bar, a Waterworks bath environment, and a king-size bed outfitted with hand-woven throws and Fili D'oro linens. Guests have the option of adjoining the London Atrium with connecting London Suites to convert their accommodations into a two- or three-bedroom suite.

True urban sanctuaries, the 1,800-square-foot London Apartments offer sweeping views of Central Park, the Hudson River, and the Manhattan skyline. Located on floors 47 through 50, the apartments feature living areas and sitting rooms, dining rooms with seating for up to eight guests, two bathrooms, and a king-size bed. Each suite is appointed with exquisitely detailed bespoke furniture, crafted in rich materials such as brushed slate and oak with gold and silver accents. Guests will even find a chaise upholstered in embossed crocodile leather. Many of the suites also showcase hand-finished panels and a revolving collection of British art and fashion books in their libraries. The London Apartments can also be adjoined with a London Suite to accommodate up to four guests.

The London Penthouse, a stunning

2,500-square-foot duplex suite, is located on the 53rd and 54th floors – the highest hotel room in New York. Also on the 53rd and 54th floors are the London Sky Suites, which range in size from 800 to 900 square feet and offer spacious accommodations and breathtaking views.

All of The London NYC's suites feature custom lighting, complimentary in-room wireless Internet access, iHome iPod docking stations, flat-screen LCD televisions, and in-room safes. Each suite also includes a fully stocked bar, and many are equipped with Sub-Zero refrigerators.

The London NYC also offers guests free phone calls to London for up to eight hours a day a special 24-hour in-room dining menu designed by world-renowned chef Gordon Ramsay and Quintessentially, the hotel's on-site global personal concierge service. Guests also enjoy The London NYC Club, a top-of-the-line 24-hour fitness center featuring cardiovascular and strength-training equipment, a studio for individual stretching and core balance exercises, and a Kinesis Wall. In addition, appointments with personal trainers, nutritionists, and sports therapists and in-room massages and facial treatments can be arranged through the concierge. ●
