

Triumph Hotels New York

TRIUMPH HOTELS (TRIUMPHHOTELS.COM) OPERATES seven hotels as diverse and distinct as the city surrounding them. From traditional luxury to graceful elegance to downtown chic, each of their seven hotels in New York City delivers a unique experience inspired by the personality and character of its neighborhood. The collection includes: Hotel Belleclaire on the Upper West Side, The Washington Jefferson in the Theater District, The Hotel Edison in Times Square, The Iroquois New York in Midtown, Hotel Chandler in Flatiron, The Evelyn in NoMad, and The Cosmopolitan Hotel in TriBeCa.

The recently renovated Presidential Suite in Hotel Edison is the true star of Broadway. Presiding over Times Square, high above the hustle and bustle of New York City, this apartment-sized suite offers unsurpassed luxury and comfort matched only by its spectacular views. It features a collection of thoughtful amenities and upscale design elements meant to blend utility and style. The Presidential Suite includes a comfortable king bed and pull-out sofa, along with a large kitchenette, free broadband Wi-Fi, and stunning city views. Visitors will also revel in an ample dining room with seating for six guests, a luxurious ensuite marble bathroom with double hand wash basin, a monsoon steam shower, and plush Frette slippers and bathrobes, as well as two 42-inch LCD flat-screen HDTVs, iHome with iPod docking station, Frette linens, and C.O. Bigelow bath amenities. The Presidential Suite can be connected to a Signature Two Queens Guestroom. ●

Clockwise from top: Hotel Edison's Presidential Suite living and dining area; kitchen; bedroom; bathroom

