

Best Suites

Le Parker Meridien

LOCATED IN THE HEART OF MANHATTAN on West 57th Street, the Jack Parker Corporation-owned Le Parker Meridien, founded in 1955, offers a modern and luxurious space for the discerning traveler. The property boasts 731 rooms and suites furnished in cherry and cedar woods, featuring classic amenities like two phone lines and in-room safes. The hotel also offers a choice of three restaurants, a 9,000-square-foot banquet space, and a fully equipped spa and fitness center.

Guests looking to indulge during their stay can request one of six Diplomatic Suites. Each unit offers 1,000 square feet of space, ideal for business meetings, complete with an Aeron desk chair and high-speed Internet access for those guests eager to stay in touch with the office. For those hoping to enjoy some down time, the living room provides a 42-inch plasma screen and fully stocked mini bar. Guests are assured a good night's sleep in a divine feather bed with luscious 300-thread count sheets, and bedrooms also come equipped with a swiveling unit encasing a SONY 32-inch flat screen TV offering first run movies, a CD/DVD player, a PlayStation, and Web TV. The bathrooms feature a walk-in shower, big enough for two.

For those looking for the next step up in quality, the sole 1,324-square-foot Presidential Suite is the place to be. In addition to providing all the luxurious amenities of a Diplomatic Suite, the space boasts an entirely separate screening room with an 80-inch screen for entertaining a large number of important visitors. In addition, the bathroom offers guests a deep bath for soothing sore muscles at day's end, as well as a bidet.

With their choice of top-of-the-line suites, Le Parker Meridien is an ideal location for catering to the wants and needs of the most discriminating traveler. ●

The Diplomatic Suite (top); and the Presidential Suite (left)