

InterContinental The Barclay New York

INTERCONTINENTAL THE BARCLAY NEW YORK, a luxury business hotel centrally located in midtown Manhattan, offers 686 guest rooms and suites, all magnificently appointed with a variety of modern amenities, guaranteeing guests a comfortable and relaxing stay. The property boasts exceptional banquet and meeting facilities including 18 function rooms, and an in-house audio-visual department offers a range of equipment. Leisure facilities include a 1,500 square-foot health club featuring state-of-the-art equipment.

The Barclay also offers guests an enhanced customer experience via its Concierge Lounge located in the main hotel lobby. Its in-house Concierges have been elevated to serve as “in the know” brand ambassadors providing local, authentic and enriching travel experiences to guests to make their stays as memorable as possible.

Guests of the property have a choice of 86 exquisite suites, each offering something different for the discerning guest. All offer the option of arranging a sumptuous meal in the privacy of the suite, set up by the hotel’s private dining manager.

Boasting an abundant 2,300 square feet of space with a grand entrance, the Barclay Suite features a king bedroom with an oversized master bathroom including a Jacuzzi tub with an adjacent waterfall, a marble sit-down shower, and plasma TV’s. A second bedroom has two double beds along with its own private bathroom. The space also provides a luxurious living room space, a pantry, and additional half bath.

Those searching for the ultimate experience the hotel has to offer can book the Presidential Suite, which offers an indulgent 2,500 square feet of space. The grand entrance leads guests to a space with a king bed, a master bathroom that boasts a Jacuzzi, a glass sit-down shower, a mini gym for those eager to stay in shape, four plasma TV’s, and heated floors. The space also includes a formal dining room for entertaining friends or family, a living room with a grand piano for the musically inclined, a library, office, and a kitchenette.
