

The New York Palace

THE TOWERS AT THE NEW YORK PALACE occupy the property's top 14 floors and provide every guest access to a host of amenities coupled with unparalleled views of Manhattan. The property boasts exquisitely furnished rooms and suites designed in both contemporary and traditional décor, alternating by floor between American Classic and modern Nautical Art Deco, and all featuring spacious, fully-appointed marble bathrooms. Guests to The Towers can relax comfortably in a private reception area with committed concierges before being taken up to their room in high-speed elevators exclusively reserved for their use. With King-bedded and Double rooms measuring in excess of 400 square feet, Junior Suites more than 600 square feet, and one- and two-bedroom Corner Suites exceeding 1,170 and 1,570 square feet, Tower guests can unwind in truly spacious surroundings.

Those looking for the regal experience can indulge themselves with a stay in the Royal Suite, which reflects the grandeur of the classic French culture and style of Kings Louis XV and XVI, and which also celebrates the hotel's dedication to outstanding detail. Guests who desire a one-of-a-kind experience may book one of four signature Triplex Suites, each with 5,000 square feet spread over three floors, decorated in contemporary Art Deco style and boasting 18-foot floor-to-ceiling windows offering exceptional skyline views. Visitors to this three-bedroom, six-bathroom penthouse enjoy exclusive privileges, including a wood-burning fireplace, a fully-equipped kitchen, a 10-seat dining room, and a private elevator for the suite's three floors. The crowning glory is the 1,440-square foot, fully-furnished private terrace with breathtaking vistas. All of these features combine to create a premier entertainment and event venue.

Future guests can access information on The Towers at The New York Palace online at www.newyorkpalace.com. ●

Two views from triplexes in the Towers (above); the Royal suite master bedroom (below)