

The Peninsula Beverly Hills Hotel

WITH THE LOOK AND FEEL OF AN EXCLUSIVE private residence, the AAA five-diamond and Forbes Five-Star Peninsula Beverly Hills Hotel (www.peninsula.com/Beverly_Hills) is perfectly positioned as one of Southern California's most desirable addresses. Built in classic Renaissance style, the property offers guests a choice of 196 luxurious rooms and suites and 16 comfortable detached Garden Villa Suites. There is no shortage of amenities and conveniences for discerning visitors to indulge in, including the hotel's Pen Air service, which offers luggage storage and shipping, 24-hour flexible check-in and checkout service, and gourmet take-out meals that guests can enjoy on their flight or drive home.

Those seeking the ultimate experience the property has to offer may request The Peninsula Suite. The 2,250-square-foot space boasts a master bedroom with separate living room and dining room, a grand piano, and the latest in hotel technology, from fingertip room controls to Bose sound systems and flat-screen televisions. The suite also provides seating for up to 10 for elegant dinner parties.

An intimate property featuring exquisite dining options on site, the Peninsula features three quality food and beverage outlets, each with its own distinct menu and atmosphere. One of Hollywood's power dining favorites, The Belvedere serves modern American cuisine for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. The Living Room offers a sophisticated salon setting and serves afternoon tea, cocktails, snacks, meals, coffee, and dessert. Guests looking to enjoy an outdoor dining experience will delight in The Roof Garden, which offers healthful breakfasts, lunches, and early evening meals, as well as imported herbal tonics and teas. The Club Bar is also available, offering fine wine and cognac.

Visitors eager to stay in shape or just relax while away from home will appreciate the hotel's 60-foot lap pool and spa, featuring a dedicated skin therapy room and relaxation space overlooking the Hollywood Hills, as well as a couples' treatment room for guests who want to enjoy massages, facials, and body treatments together.

For special occasions and meetings, the property offers high quality yet flexible venues, including The Verandah, the Boardroom, the Magnolia Suite, and the Gardenia Suite, all of which offer social and business events the most tastefully designed settings.

The Peninsula Beverly Hills Hotel is a member of The Hongkong and Shanghai Hotels, Limited portfolio, and is managed by Offer Nissenbaum, who began his career with Helmsley Hotels in New York City. ●

Clockwise from the upper left: Front view of the hotel; Roof Garden Pool; Offer Nissenbaum; Royal Patio Suite; Villa Suite; Grand Deluxe Guestroom; Spa couples suite; Roof Garden