

Editors' CHOICE

The Beverly Hills Hotel and Bungalows

BUILT IN 1912, THE BEVERLY HILLS HOTEL and Bungalows (www.beverlyhillshotel.com) is elegantly situated among 12 landscaped acres, and features 204 guest rooms, suites, and one-of-a-kind private bungalows, as well as the celebrity favorite, The Polo Lounge. Long known as "The Pink Palace," the hotel is a member of the Dorchester Collection and was recently honored with the 2010 Forbes Five Star Award by Forbes Travel Guide, an accolade consistently earned over the past 12 years.

Guests interested in the best the property has to offer may request the 2,500-square-foot Presidential Suite with private entrance, an adjoining gourmet kitchen available with a personal 24-hour chef and butler, and a Jacuzzi bath with separate his and her showers.

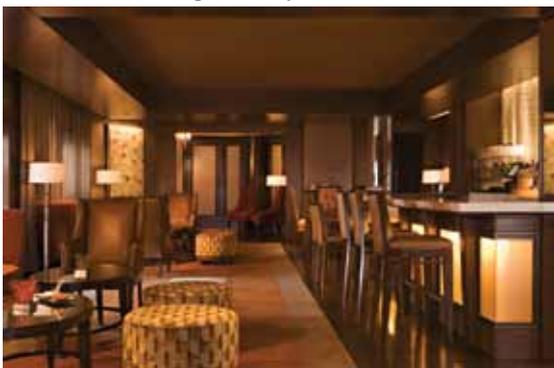

Diners will appreciate the variety of options available to suit any palate. The famed Polo Lounge serves breakfast, lunch, and dinner; The Cabana Café offers poolside dining; and The Fountain Coffee Room offers a spot to enjoy informal meals, complete with a soda fountain and 19 original bar stools. Bar Nineteen 12 offers two distinct settings: a sophisticated indoor bar and a terrace overlooking the pool and gardens, and offers guests light fare and unique cocktails.

The Beverly Hills Hotel offers visitors a soothing haven with their La Prairie Spa with six treatment rooms including two couple's suites, private cabanas, and steam rooms and saunas for men and women. Guests looking for a great workout while away from home will appreciate the property's state-of-the-art line of new Technogym equipment, as well as access to a personal trainer for individual sessions.

Visitors will also enjoy their stay poolside, where staff will cater to every need from sunglasses cleaning to providing frozen sorbet and fresh towels.

There is no shortage of meeting and event space on-site, including three exceptional ballrooms, the Polo Private Dining Room, and the Boardroom, which features state-of-the-art audiovisual capabilities and is ideally situated for any business gathering.

For a stay worthy of Hollywood's elite, guests need look no further than The Beverly Hills Hotel and Bungalows. ●

Clockwise from the top left: Bar Nineteen 12, Pool view, Polo Lounge Loggia, Presidential Suite living area, Sunset Ballroom, Bungalow Suite