Four Seasons Hotel New York

THE I. M. PEI-DESIGNED FOUR Seasons Hotel New York (www.fourseasons.com/newyorkfs) is a Forbes Five Star, AAA Five Diamond property boasting 368 oversized guest rooms, including 63 suites. Rising over Manhattan's premier shopping and business district between Park and Madison Avenues, this architectural icon features stunning views and boasts a gracious style. Numerous property upgrades in recent years include a redesigned spa and fitness center, the addition of TY Lounge and The Garden Restaurant, two Presidential Suites, the Royal Suite, and the crown jewel – the Ty Warner Penthouse Suite. These one-of-a-kind specialty suites evoke an air of modern luxury and classic elegance.

At 2,000 square feet, the Royal Suite is one of four one-of-a-kind specialty suites located on the 32nd floor via private access and features two bedrooms and an adjoining library, which can be converted to a third bedroom. Offering a spacious living room, a terrace with city views, and three-and-a-half bathrooms, as well as ample closet space, guests will marvel at silver-leafed elevator doors, leather-paneled headboards, goat-skinned walls, marble floors, and a mother-of-pearl chandelier. An impressive array of technological offerings includes seven flat-screen and/or plasma televisions, DVD players, premium sound systems, and wall safes that recharge laptop computers, all of which are user-friendly but also concealed, thereby enhancing the suite's clean lines.

Situated on the 51st floor and providing exceptional views of the Manhattan skyline via floor-to-ceiling bay windows and through balconies on the building's corners, the Presidential Suites 5101 and 5102 are a visitor's dream. Suite 5101 provides guests with an extravagant library boasting oversized leather club chairs, walls with embossed leather panels, and a marble hearth streaked in shades of toffee and magenta. The coffee-colored, swirl-patterned carpet covers a floor of ebonized wood. Suite 5102 features cream-colored credenzas along with customized gilt and lacquer game tables, chairs, and fixtures, and a baby grand piano.

Guests will delight in the option to choose the world's most expensive hotel suite: the $50-million Ty Warner Penthouse. This 4,300-square-foot space is positioned on the 52nd floor and offers access via a private elevator. Offering a stunning 360-degree view of Manhattan, it features a library, living room, master bedroom, and spa, and each area boasts a unique design aesthetic, with floor-to-ceiling bay windows, cantilevered glass balconies, vaulted ceilings, and skylights. The suite also provides a Zen garden, breakfast room, powder room, dressing room, and master bathroom. Guests will appreciate specially commissioned decor and one-of-a-kind furniture, boasting semi-precious stone surfaces, hand-applied straw marquetry, hand-painted lacquer panels, and custom designed fabrics woven with threads of platinum, gold, and silver. In addition, the unlimited use of a chauffeured Rolls Royce or Mercedes Maybach is available, as is a personal trainer, 24/7 personal butler services, and a full range of spa treatments. ●
