

World's Best Suites

The Jefferson Hotel

AS WASHINGTON, D.C.'S finest small boutique hotel, The Jefferson (www.jeffersondc.com) has presided over the corner of 16th and M Streets since 1923, when the Beaux-Arts gem opened as an apartment building and later as a hotel for the world's elite travelers and D.C.'s most important visitors. The 95-room downtown property is European and Washingtonian in style, and tributes to Thomas Jefferson and his beloved Monticello are found throughout.

The Jefferson boasts three exquisite dining options including the Forbes five-star rated Plume; an intimate petite spa dedicated to customized treatments; three discreet meeting spaces; and amenities including complimentary Wi-Fi and telephone calls, 24-hour butler service, an on-site fitness center, a 24-hour self-service business center, and a private resident's lounge with fireplace.

Visitors seeking the best the property has to offer will revel in the Thomas Jefferson Suite. This expansive space commands views of the Washington Monument, the White House, and the surrounding city from five Juliet balconies, which open to allow an abundance of fresh air into the suite.

The master bedroom features a king bed with custom linens, and the suite's grand salon with walnut parquet flooring gives way to a gas fireplace. A warm and cozy seating area allows guests to take in striking views from one of the balconies, and a separate formal dining room for 10 is ideal for an intimate dinner party in the privacy of the suite. This one-of-a-kind suite also features a daytime sitting room, kitchen and study, as well as a guest powder room. The Italian marble master bathroom is windowed to allow in natural light, and features a shower with massaging body sprays, a free-standing soaking tub, two sinks, and intricate mosaic tiling.

All suites offer an entry foyer and unique décor inspired by Jefferson's loves, such as wine, music, books, and horticulture, with original period artwork to compliment the individual motif. ●

"Each of The Jefferson's 20 specialty suites has its own theme based upon a passion of our third President. You may be housed in the architectural suite, the astronomy suite, or the beautiful butterfly suite. The artwork in these suites gives each space a unique character that is stylishly elegant with meticulous attention to detail providing an environment similar to one's own home. Our over-sized king beds are draped with custom linens and our bath products from red flower are crafted specifically for the hotel and feature herbs and botanicals known to have grown in Thomas Jefferson's gardens. To complete the bath experience, we provide bath crystals for our deep soaking tubs."

-Philip A. Wood, Managing Director

Clockwise from top left: The Jefferson Suite sitting room; living area, master bath, bedroom, and dining room