Ladera's Suites and Villa at Paradise Ridge

LADERA (LADERA.COM) IS THE ONLY RESORT IN SAINT LUCIA SET IN BETWEEN THE PITONS, A UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE. THE exclusive eco-luxe resort is on a forested ridge 1,100 feet above the Caribbean Sea, perched on top of the Soufriere volcano. Ladera is the only hotel in the Caribbean ever rated number one in the world according to Conde Nast Traveler's Best of the Best List. Over two decades ago, Ladera pioneered the concept of the open-air, three-walled guest suite that remains its signature design. The only authentic luxury Saint Lucia resort, Ladera prides itself on its handcrafted furniture made by local artisans and its fresh local Caribbean cuisine.

The hotel offers an elegant selection of suites, sure to appeal to even the most discerning travelers. The Suites and Villa at Paradise Ridge are constructed of tropical hardwoods, Soufriere stone, and house-cut tile, as well as furniture made onsite by the resort's own craftsmen. All units are decorated with local artwork and feature magnificent views of the Pitons and the Caribbean Sea. Each suite/villa includes an open-air bedroom with a four-poster king bed and open sitting room; a swimming pool 1,000 feet above the Caribbean Sea; a private minibar stocked daily with water, soft drinks, and local beer; local coffee- and tea-making facilities; oversized bathrooms and showers; Kohler Signature Bath Fixtures; Molton Brown Bath Products; and butler service.

Ladera always strives to impress and, with first-rate accommodations, promises to make each visitor's stay an enchanting and memorable one. ●
