Throughout the years, Brown's has welcomed numerous famous guests including beloved author Rudyard Kipling, who wrote The Jungle Book while staying at Brown's. To honor him, the magnificent Kipling Suite has been named after the great writer, and it offers a large sitting room with wooden floors and three floor-to-ceiling triple-glazed windows, providing the perfect setting for guests wishing to entertain in grand style from within the privacy of their suite. Both the king-size bedroom and sitting room have flat-screen Bang & Olufsen TVs. The suite bathroom is finished in bush hammered limestone and offers a separate rain-head shower, double hand basins, and oversize bath with a built-in flat-screen television at the foot of it. Luxurious Ren toiletries and fluffy bathrobes complete the experience.

Brown's Hotel offers suites that are each elegantly decorated but encompassing state-of-the-art technology. The soft color scheme with light fabrics, including linens, silks, and angora throws, blends perfectly with the
