Luxe Sunset Boulevard

PERFECTLY POSITIONED WHERE ELEGANT BEL AIR MEETS SOPHISTICATED Brentwood, Luxe Sunset Boulevard Hotel (luxesunset.com) offers guests a quiet urban enclave in striking distance from the famed Getty Center, Hollywood, and Southern California beaches. The property's seven-acre spread serves as an ideal home base for those wishing to indulge in the quintessential Los Angeles experience, while its 162 guest rooms and suites boast spacious layouts up to 45 percent larger than the national average for standard accommodations. One of two Luxe-branded hotels corporately owned by veteran hotelier, Efreem Harkham, Luxe Sunset Boulevard Hotel is hallmarked by service personalized to the individual needs of each guest.

Guests of Luxe Sunset Boulevard Hotel will appreciate the variety of exceptional accommodations designed to meet their every need.

The four unique and individually designed Vista Suites boast sweeping city views, and yet are ideally situated on the spa level for the utmost in privacy and seclusion. At 615 square feet, each suite offers a king-size bed, oversized bathroom, marble Jacuzzi tub, separate glass-walled shower, comfortable living area, luxury linens, a 36-inch flat-screen TV, complimentary high-speed Wi-Fi, iPod docking station, fully stocked refreshment center, and Luxe signature cotton bathrobes.

The Executive Suites are in line with the Vista Suites but give guests more space, and include an additional seating area, perfect for visitors who may want to entertain, and a Roman bathtub to soothe daily aches and pains.

For those seeking a more indulgent visit, the one-bedroom Luxe Suites are in line with the aforementioned spaces but also offer a designer-perfect living room for entertaining, a wet bar, two dual-line telephones, two flat-screen TVs, on-demand movies and video games to cater to every entertainment need, twin sinks, and a sunken soaker tub, ideal for relaxing after a long and busy day.

There is no shortage of suite options guaranteed to impress the most discerning travelers. ●
