

Editors'
CHOICE

Savoy Baur en Ville Zurich

MONEY MARCHES BY EVERYDAY THROUGH the Paradeplatz where the major world banks are headquartered. The Savoy Baur en Ville (savoy-baurenville.ch) lies within the bustling square, truly as one of the great hotels of the world. Operated and managed by the Horger family since 1985, the Savoy Baur en Ville is the epitome of Swiss efficiency and class with a natural elegance fit for royalty. The hotel houses two restaurants, The Baur for international cuisine and Orsini for Italian cuisine, and both are regarded among the finest restaurants in Zurich, a spectacular feat for a hotel.

Equipped with 97 rooms and 15 suites, each accommodation exhibits a majestic elegance with all the essential modern amenities. Adjoining rooms offer additional space perfect for larger business gatherings or families.

The Savoy, which has been named the "the best business hotel in the world," holds that title because of the unparalleled level of excellence exhibited by the employees, most of whom have been with the property for decades. It is rare to find a team so attentive, welcoming, and invested in each visitor's individualized experience, which contributes to the hotel's high guest retention rate.

The mix of its superb location, first-class service, and generous hospitality of the Horgers adds to the Savoy's everlasting reputation. Mrs. Horger tirelessly maneuvers throughout the hotel, overseeing every detail with meticulous precision. The Savoy Baur en Ville is one of the true gems of the world, and whether one is a discerning business traveler, an A-list celebrity, or simply looking for a luxurious retreat, one's every need will be anticipated, and met with the style and excellence that have been eternally attributed to this illustrious hotel. ●

Clockwise from upper right: The Savoy Baur en Ville lobby, exterior, a suite living area, and the Restaurant Baur

