Owned by the TCC Group of Thailand, it is a member of The Leading Hotels of the World.

The 26 suites curated by Hôtel Plaza Athénée New York each display their own individual decor and unique ambiance. At 1,972 square feet, these expansive suites offer a media room with 60-inch television, dining area for six, and one and a half bathrooms.

One done in classic French style and the other with a distinctive Thai influence, the property's two Presidential Suites are located on the 8th and 9th floors. Facing quiet, tree-lined 64th Street, these spaces can contain between one and four bedrooms resulting in 1,410 to 2,200 square feet. Additional features include large walk-in closets, a living area with hardwood floors, and an additional half bath.

Guests can dine at either of the charming on-property venues: Arabelle with its classically chic menu highlights local and organic ingredients and Bar Seine is an intimate cocktail lounge graced with rich velvets and an authentic leather floor, which serves a delightful afternoon tea as well as sophisticated evening cocktails. Adjoining Arabelle, guests will find the private 280-square-foot dining room with seating for up to 25 guests for breakfast, lunch or dinner. This room offers the utmost in discretion and charm, whether guests are planning to share cocktails or a four-course meal.
