

Hôtel Plaza Athénée Paris

True to its extraordinary city, Hôtel Plaza Athénée Paris (dorchestercollection.com/en/paris/hotel-plaza-athenee) is no ordinary hotel. Located on the prestigious avenue Montaigne, the tree-lined boulevard of French fashion, the hotel proudly offers guests the very best of Paris. With 208 rooms, the Hôtel Plaza Athénée Paris and its Haute Couture Eiffel Suite offers a unique view of the Eiffel tower.

Vast volumes, precious fabrics, colors in rupture or in monochrome and magnificent heights under ceiling will all be found in the Haute Couture Eiffel Suite. Decorated by Marie-Jose Pommereau, this typically Haussmann-style apartment shelters a 130-square-meter suite with a very couture spirit. First, the eye discovers a spacious living room where shimmering pink colors enhance the subtle tones of pearl gray and silver gray: the curtains, all dressed in silk, play the contrast of colors; the lampshades, the Lesage cushions and the pink shepherdesses are echoed to highlight the stylish furniture – the coffee table with a silver-leaved glass and the wide dark gray velvet sofas, designed on measure, which are facing each other. A sublime silver frame reveals the majestic Iron Lady in a living painting, evolving according to the hours and the seasons. Gradually, you turn your gaze upwards to a chandelier decorated with a few black tassels and, further on, to a vast desk behind two wide sliding doors. A large bay window illuminates the room. In addition, there is for studious sessions an office fully equipped, and also a grand piano and a table. Finally, you will enter the bedroom, always coordinated, which in turn reveals a white marble bathroom dressed in grey mosaic, and a spacious dressing room.

Guests will experience the height of style and elegant luxury when visiting Hôtel Plaza Athénée Paris. Fresh, iconic, inspiring, original and utterly magnificent, at Hôtel Plaza Athénée Paris a unique and delightful experience awaits. ●
