

Il Giglio Tribeca

Il Giglio (ilgiglio.com) is a name synonymous with Tribeca which has delighted guests with exquisite Tuscan fare and regional favorites since 1989. The name today has attached itself to a new Italian restaurant located at 361 Greenwich Street. Blending contemporary design with traditional culinary roots, Il Giglio brings a storied legacy of impeccable service and luxurious plates to Tribeca's discerning palates. A chic new restaurant and redesign in 2023 celebrates clean modern lines that celebrities, dignitaries, and locals feel at home in, while an expanded wine service brings hundreds of rare vintages to complement each fine dining experience. At Il Giglio, guests will celebrate the refined traditions of Italy in the heart of Tribeca. Il Giglio offers discerning locals a chic space to delight in exquisite handmade pastas and lovingly crafted plates that highlight the riches of the land and sea.

From personal celebrations to corporate events, Il Giglio offers customized menus and curated spaces that make events soar. With a private dining room that holds up to 22 guests, or a full restaurant fête to delight up to 95, Il Giglio crafts memorable private occasions that embody excellence.

With a team of professionals including manager, Mark Sindoni; director of operations, Jonathan McGrath; and maitre d', Zoran Vlacic, Il Giglio offers hospitality and service at the highest levels. Whether it's a stately dinner or a spirited brunch, indulge in culinary elegance amid contemporary hues that only Il Giglio can provide. ●

Il Giglio Tribeca at 361 Greenwich Street in New York City

